There was nothing very objectionable in these resolutions, they asked for only a very pitiful meed of commendation for our warlike Presi-dent, indeed, so pitiful that had Democrats been ready to give any praise at all, the Know Nothready to give any praise at all, the Know-Nothing members were willing to vote for them.—But they covered a principle, they were open to the interpretation of being an endorsement of the stupidity, folly, and deceit which have prevailed in Kansas affairs under federal domination, and the Representatives of the people of Louisiana were not prepared to stultify themselves. Louisiana were not prepared to stultify themselves by voting even a faint approval of such proceedings, merely to solace men who have shown loyalty, sincerity, patriotism, or states manship in grappling with the Kansas troubles Louisiana was not prepared to unite in chorus with the John Van Burens, the newspaper Bennetts, the Cochranes, Dixes, and the offal generally of Abolitionism, in demanding the admission of Kansas into the Union contrary to every ocratic sentiment, and in opposition to the well understood wishes of nine-tenths of its inhabi tants. If there was any reason for supposing that any respectable portion of the people of that Territory were in favor of making it a slave State, or if there was the smallest possible chance of slavery ever being established permanently there, Louisiana would be among the last to yield an inch on the question; but when told by the President himself, when assured by all his Northern Abolition allies that the constitution which, for admission into the Union, is all-sufficient-is not binding upon the people for whom it is formed, and may be discarded at pleasureafter that announcement Louisiana, whatever he Congressional delegation may do, or however they may act, will not be found approving any such doctrine. If the Kansas Constitution be such as to justify its framers in their application to have the Territory admitted as a State, it is extraordinary if those who so contend should adopt the views of President Buchanan, and declare we suppose that the Bee and Crescent newspapers sale. of this city, the only Lecomptonites fully here, are prepared to admit on the same principle that the constitution of the State may be superseded by legislative act at the determination of a mere majority is of the General Assembly in the Kansas question, to the compulsory en- Illinois. forcement of an unratified constitution upon the people of any State or Territory, we have thought much of the matter as presented by Buchanan and the supporters of his individual views, and consequently have no opinion at this time, or in this connection, to give upon the subject; but our cotemporaries above alluded to, have no doubt maturely considered their position and we should like to have from them an explicit

COUNTY COURT DAY .- Last Monday was an old fashioned "Court Day." We have not seen so large a crowd in our streets for several months, nor so much business transacted since the begin ing of the panic last fall. The sales, it is true, did not run up to the high figures reached some-

There were eight or nine hundred mules in market, and about five hundred cattle, besides large numbers of horses and other property. Mr. Hibler is the only auctioneer that has favored us with a report. It foots up $34,690 95. Two year old mules brought from $81 to $116 a head—yearlings from $58 to $95.

There was a perceptible advance in the prices of all kinds of stock, and sales were much more easily effected than at any sale day for some months. This is the result of the increasing confidence in the business community, and the gradual improvement in the money market. This rovement has been slow and gradual, but it has been real, and although money may still be called very tight, it is not near so tight as it has been, especially for dealers in stock.

The banks are affording some accommodations, and private capitalists are loaning to some extent, but still at high rates.

This was the day for the annual show of horses, usually quite an attraction to breeders and fanciers of these noble animals. The show was a very fine one, about twenty-five of the best horses in the county being present. There were also some of the longed-eared gentry present, attracting attention, not by comeliness of form or grace of movement, but by the money value wrapped up in their ugly hides.—Paris Cit

Another Death from Lock-Jaw .-- Wm. Fox, only son of Henry Fox, lately of this place and now residing near Brown's Lock, died on last Monday, from lock jaw occasioned by pricking his foot with a nail. On last Friday week, while uncovering a house near this place he stepped upon a nail, which passed through his shoe and pen-etrated the bottom of his foot. The pain experienced at the time was so slight as to give him no concern in reference to it. The wound was thus permitted to pass unnoticed until last Saturday, when the premonotory symptoms of lock jaw were experienced, and later in the evening he was seized with paroxysms, which followed each other in quick succession until 9 o'clock Monday morning, when he died. The grief of his parents we understand is almost too great to be borne. We cordially sympathise with them in their deep sorrow.

The deceased was brought to this place and buried yesterday.—Bowlinggreen Gazette.

THE ARMY BILL.—FOREIGNERS AND THE "BLOODY KNOW-NOTHINGS"—Our readers are aware that, early in the session of the present Congress, the Administration brought forward a measure for an increase of the standing army. This measure We commend the subjoined sensible article was promptly killed, and mainly by the friends of the Administration. Gen Quitman then introducarmy are foreigners," has been reiterated, and used as a powerful argument against the Administration policy, and in support of the volunteer policy. One of the Union and American's numerous Washington corresspondents thus speaks of the effort of Mr. Savage, of Tennessee, in sup-port of Gen. Quitman's bill:

"He handled the admission of the Secretary of War, who says that two thirds of our rank and file are foreigners," and that the Mormons were also "foreigners," so as to show that we should 1. Be it Resolved, That when Congress passed the law organizing the Territory of Kansas, no departure from the usages of the Government materials as foreigners against foreigners. He traced the origin of the Administration bill. to Mr. Poinsett's recommendation in 1839, to divide the country into eight military districts, with through their Territorial Legislature, passed a law providing for the call of a Convention, they picted the evils which would follow its enactment-that it would overturn the military poli cy of the country, and for the future do away with those gallant volunteers whose deeds are undying in our rocords—whose valor achieved our liberties at first, and will protect them till the

The sham Democracy have been so persistent people, by the acceptance of the nomination to the Presidency under the Cincinnati platform, to that source. It will not do to trust "foreigners against foreigners," at least as soldiers. We are to infer that they would either fly the field or go over bodily to the enemy. But we should like to know if foreigners are unfit to be made "food for powder," how much worthier are they to be hereby, requested to transmit a copy of these resolutions to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress. be relied on to protect and defend the rights and interests and honor of the country? There has been a great deal also said about the insignifi-cance of the foreign population of the United States, in point of numbers, and their inability to do any great harm, if they were so disposed. But it is now officially admitted that they already compose two-thirds of the rank and file Army, and it is insisted that they are nreliable. Here we have a most complete and nanswerable vindication of the doctrines and ustification for the apprehensions entertained and expressed by the "bloody Know Nothings," v the very men who have been most bitter and eepless in opposition to them. It is furthermore a flat denial of much that they have written and ooken against the American party. Will not ich facts arrest the attention and enlist the so per reflection of the people?-Nashville Patriot.

> WASHINGTON GOSSIP .- The Washington corespondent of the New York Times writes under

You need an explanation of the vote on the volunteer bill to day. The House understood General Quitman to say that the Military com mittee concurred in the Senate amendment reducing the number of regiments to three, and voted accordingly. He afterwards explained that the committee, as well as the President, desired five regiments, and a large number of members immediately changed their votes; but the explanation came too late, or the programme indiated yesterday might have succeeded.

Col. Colt is understood to have made a con tract with the War Department for one hundred thousand dollars worth of his arms.

The Fort Snelling committee will meet to prow to prepare a report. The majority will probably adopt a resolution directing the can celing of the sale, the return of the first install ment of the purchase-money, and the censure of that in that event, its provisions as they affect the people themselves, are a nullity. In other terms, port all right, and advise the confirmation of the

> AN IRISHMAN'S CONFIDENCE IN A BANK .- We heard the following capital story yesterday, and only regret that we cannot tell it as it was told

A banker, in Dubuque, whom we shall call Mr. M-ly, for short, found it necessary a short time declaration in regard to it, as before long we may require the information for a domestic appliago to suspend business, and accordingly closed his doors, and issued a card to his depositors, in which he stated that he hoped he would soon be able to resume again. The day after Mr. M. had closed his doors, he was met by a Hibernian miner who had $6,000 deposited with him, and

"God morning, Mr., M., faith an' it's well you're looking this morning, considerin' the weather. But, sure, it's sorry I am, Mr. M., to see that card of yours in the papers. But niver time last spring and summer, but they exhibit-ed a very marked increase over those of the last age and hould up your head as high as iver the throuble of the thing will soon be over. And as for that $6,000 of mine, just kape it as long lars—and I know yees for an honest mon, and perfectly good for the same at anytime. Kape it, sir, and pleasant be wid ye."

Mr. M. expressed his thanks, and the banker and depositor separated. But on the following day Mr. M. was startled from his "pleasant dreams" by the presentation of a check for $6,000, bearing the name of his Hibernian friend. Not knowing exactly how to understand the mat ter. Mr. M. sent for Patrick, when the following explanation took place:

"Well, you see, Mr. M.. Peggy, that is my wife, has been raising the very divil about my money—and just to pacify the poor ignorant cratur that it was all safe, I thought, be dad, that I'd just send for it, and count it all over before her ugly face, and then she'll consent to my leaving wid you, together wid other $4,000, that is giving us so much throuble to kape from being stolen from us." To such an explanation, together with the new temptation of $4,000 additional, the banker could take no exceptions—so he counted out the $6,000, in short. But that was the last of the Irishman. The banker meeting him several days afterwards, desired another explanation.

"Och, the truth is, Mr. M., its myself that has been ashamed to see yees. Peggy, that divil of mine, see, has hid the money, and dom me if I an find it all at all, and that's the truth, sir."

The banker made a graceful tender of his hat, can find it all at all, and that's the truth, sir.' but Pat generously declined to accept the same, although justly entitled to it.—Burlington Ga-

THE LECOMPTON TICKET WITH THE CRITTENDEN AMENDMENT .- An Irishman on election day made his appearance at one of the polls with a ticket in his hand, which he declared was the "true Dimmercratic ticket." An acquaintance looked at it, and found that it was headed with the name of Judge Spencer. He remarked, "Why, Pat, that's not the Democratic ticket, at all.' "Faith an' it is," was Pat's reply—"its the Lecompton ticket, with the Crittenden amendments."-Cin. Times.

STORM AT LEBANON .- We learn that the storm on Thursday was felt severely at Lebanon and caused some damage. The tin roof on the engine house of the railroad was blown off, but the work on it was so well done that it carried with LECTURES BY HON. T. F. WASHINGTON, April 7. House .- Mr. Lovejoy made an ineffectual effort to introduce a resolution calling upon the Secretary of War to inform the House how many army officers are absent from their duties at the seat of government and how many hold offices by election or otherwise. Mr. Branch spoke with reference to a recon sideration of the vote by which the deficiency bill was rejected. He hesitated to declare that the monstrous expenditures of the army had almost reached a point to induce the entire country to rise and demand a reform, and pointed out the way by which this might be effected. He believed, as had heretofore been declared by this House in form of a resolution, that Utah is in a state of rebellion, and it is now unjust and too late to undertake to control the discretion of the President as to the disposal of the troops.

Mr. Glancy Jones, in reply said that the Quarter Master General did not send the estimate on his own responsibility, but they were received with the endorsement of the Secretary of War. Mr. Branch was satisfied with this explanation and was glad to find that no infringement on propriety had been perpetrated by any bureau

The vote by which the deficiency bill was reected yesterday was reconsidered. A motion to recommit the bill to the committee on Ways and Means was then negatived.

The deficiency bill passed—yeas 111, nays 97.

Mr. Morris, of Penn., announced the death of Mr. Benton The House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, April 8. House .- In the House of Representatives the deciency appropriation bill was rejected-yeas 106, navs 124.

On motion of Mr. Montgomery, of Penn., the House proceeded to the consideration of the Kansas bill. Mr. M. also moved that the House adhere to its amendment Mr. Bocock, of Va., asked whether, if this motion was agreed to, all chance of settlement would be cut off?

The Speaker said he would decide the question when a contingency arises.

Mr. Grow, of Penn., moved the previous ques on. Mr. Seward, of Geo., moved to recede from the amendment. Mr. English, of Ind., applied to Mr. Montgomry to withdraw his motion.

Mr. Montgomery said it would afford him nuch pleasure to comply with the request of the gentleman from Indiana, but he could not conent to withdraw his motion. Much confusion prevailed and various ques-tions were asked respecting the effect of the nays 111. Washington, April 3. THE DEFICIENCY BILL .- The following are the provisions of the Deficiency Bill now pending, which will probably pass the House: For Clerks of House, Contingencies of the H. R., 3.913 Regular supplies of Quartermaster's Dep't, Purchase of Horses, Incidental expenses of Quartermaster's 190,000 Dep't, Barracks and other buildings. 80,000 5,400,000 Transportation of the Army, subsistence in kind, 1,220,000 Surveys of Military Defenses, 5,000 Miscellaneous; Surveys in California, 220,000 Clerks in Post Office, Deficiences in revenues of P. O. Dep't, 1,429,000

$9,669,000 This is exclusive of amendments to be offered in the Senate and House, which will doubtless swell the bill to over 12,000,000, by far the largest ever known.--Cor. Cour. & Enquirer.

WASHINGTON, April 7. Enough is known to warrant the assertion that Gov. Powell and Major McCullough, the peace commissioners to Utah, will be instructed to assure the Mormons that it is not the desire of the President and the U.S. authorities to make war upon them, but to secure the enforcement of the laws, to which end they will be counselled to participate. The commissioners will also inform them that some troops will be retained in the Territory to protect emigrants to the Pacific from the attacks of hostile Indians. The commissioners will go with the next reinforcements de spatched to Utah.

ST. Louis, April 8. The Leavenworth correspondent of the Repubican says the constitutional convention adjourncd on the night of the 3d. Negoes are allowed to vote on the constitution, and at the first gen eral election thereafter a vote is to be had on the question of universal suffrage. Foreigners, having declared their intentions, are also allowed to vote. The question of negro suffrage caused a good deal of excitement and angry discussion. and several counties signed the constitution under protest.

ST. Louis, April 9. The Leavenworth correspondent of the Democrat says the policy recommended in an address to the public, framed by one convention committee, is that they give the Leavenworth Constitu-tion a hearty ratification and refuse to accept any organic law derived from the Lecompton stitution, and do not recognize the possibility of Lecompton becoming the fundamental law, even though Congress receive it, as, without the sanc-tion of the people, it will be null and void. They distinctly understood the convention would not tolerate the policy of any free State men qual ifying under Lecompton. The bill of rights de-clares the right of all men to control their own persons to be prior to law and inalineable.

The St. Joseph Gazette notices the arrival at that place of Alexander Constant, from Fort Kearney the 30th ult. Constant reports that Brigham Young had notified Col. Johnston to leave the Territory by the 10th of March, other wise the troops would be annihilated. Young tendered the army sufficient provisions to last them to the States.

Constant met a supply train of 160 wagons accompanied by four companies of troops, on the 1st inst., on Little Blue.

The Indians were all peaceable.

WASHINGTON, April 9. Mr. Peter Besancon, in a card published this morning, says that Secretary Thompson and himself have been for years on friendly terms until yesterday's occurrence. That meeting then was of a friendly nature and the affair was unpremeditated and the result of a misunder standing. No one can regret the difficulty more than himself. He adds that he has often another quarter.

The Beautiful Canadian Trotting Stallion DEFIANCE

WILL MAKE HIS FIRST SEASON IN THE United States, at my farm in Franklin county, eight miles from Frankfort, on the turnpike road leading to Georgetown, at the very low price of TEN DOLLARS the season with fifty cents to the groom, payable within the season which has commenced, and will expire on the 1st of July.

I will furnish pasturage gratis to mares from a distance, without being responsible for accidents or escapes.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE.

DEFIANCE is a rich mahogony bay; 15½ hands high; with heavy black mane and tail; possessing fine bone; great length, and oxtraordinary gayety; and presenting in his appearance, a remarkable combination of the thorough bred with the harness horse.

He was sired by old Defiance, who was the sire of Lady Mossow, and innumerable other trotting celebrities. His dam, (Matilda Minks,) herself very celebrated both for trotting and pacing, was a Canadian mare of the most select breed. Old Defiance was by Cock of the Rock; he by Duroc; he by old Messenger. Cock of the Rock was full brother in blood to American Eclipse.

of the Rock was full brother in blood to American Eclipse.

DEFIANCE was purchased from his breeder in Canada last fall as a stock horse, both on account of his great perfection of form, color, gayety, natural speed, and graceful action, and for the high character and reputation of the stock from which he is both directly and remotely descended. He was exhibited in the fast ring at the Baltimore Fair, six weeks after his arrival, and, without any training, went his mile in 2 minutes 46 seconds, taking the second premium. I am standing him at this low rate on account of the hard times, with the purpose of inducing farmers generally to improve the character of the herse stock of the cowntry, being well assured that no horse in the State will contribute more to that end.

FOR CLERK OF THE COURT OF APPEALS, GEORGE R. McKEE, OF PULASKI COUNTY.

Do Not Forget!

That the different Councils of Franklin County are expected to meet at such times as they may severally find convenient, so as to appoint delegates to attend at the Court House in Frankfort on the 3d Monday in April (County Court day,) to select candidates of the American Party for the following offices: County Judge, County Court Clerk, Sheriff, County Attorney, Assessor, Coroner, Surveyor and Jailor.

Know-Nothingism in its palmly days could'nt boast a demagogue and trickster such as the editor of the Louisville Democrat has shown himself to be in discussing points involved in the Kansas controversy. The editorials has been experienced in the forther than the control of th he has written for the sly hypocrite from Illinois are spread out with an air and semblance of logic which is calculated to mislead those whose cast and discipline of mind is not equal to close analysis and rigid investigation of argument.

[Paris (Ky.) Flag.

We have no disposition to interfere with the family quarrels of the "harmonious Democracy," but it does sound strange to our ear, to hear S. A. Douglas, denounced by a Democratic paper, as a "sly hypocrite." This species of argument is from the same source that denounces Mr. Crittenden as an Abolitionist because he propos ed a fair and honorable adjustment of the Kansas difficulty, and because the northern men, con vinced by his able and logical argument, voted with him and against the dictation of the Administration. Out upon such hypocrisy as this say we. We presume that the editor of the Democrat will not be frightened from its sense of right by the denunciation of every thumb paper editor that chooses to vent his spleen against an advocate of sound republican policy.

We call the attention of our readers to an interesting letter on Liberia, from the Rev. A. M. Cowan, Agent of the Kentucky Colonization Society. Mr. Cowan has just returned from Liberia, having visited that place last fall for the purpose of acquainting himself, by personal observation, with all the facts concerning the pe culiarities of climate, manners and government of the colony. To all who are interested in the cause of Colonization the letter will be valuable information. We hope that Mr. Cowan may be induced to give to the public through our columns many other facts connected with the country .-We offer our space freely to him.

PIONEER CELEBRATION OF THE SETTLEMENT OF OHIO AT CINCINNATI,-We clip the following extract from the Cincinnati Gazette's description of the Pioneer celebration in that city on the even ing of the 7th inst. Mrs. John Cleves Symmes, whose name is mentioned in the account will be remembered as the venerable lady of the late Capt. Symmes, of the U. S. Navy, she was for many years a resident of Frankfort:

There was also present, Mrs. Frances H. St Clair, aged 71 years, the widow of Arthur St. Clair, (son of Gov. St. Clair,) who was a cotemporary at the bar with Judge Burnet and others. The lady came to Cincinnati when there was present administration. but a single brick house upon the site of the city. which then stood at the corner of Ffth and Main steets, and was occupied by Elmore Wil-

Mrs. E. M. Heighway, the first white child born in Cincinnati, (in 1792,) was present, and although age prevented her being a very active participant, she enjoyed the festivities of the occasion with evident pleasure, and recounted the stirring scenes of early days with anima-

The venerable Jonathan Pancoast, aged 91 years, also participated, as did Jefferson Patter son, a son of one of the original proprietors of Cincinnati. Mrs. John Cleves Symms, wife of a nephew of the original patentee of the Miami Purchase, was also present, as were a large num ber of others, whose names we have not space or time to give this morning.

TIn every place he has been Mr. Revill will run ahead of Mr. Buchanan's vote.—Louisville

Just so! He will run so far ahead of Mr. Buc hanan's vote that the election returns will not induce him to lessen his pace, until he settles down quietly amid the fastnesses of his own "Sweet Owen."

Dennis Murphy was to-day unanimously confirmed by the Senate as Postmaster at Harper's Ferry, Va .- Telegraph.

We shall next expect to hear that Barney O'Reirodan has been appointed minister to the Court of St. James.

If Of the seven absentees in the Senate, two are dangerously ill; one has not been in Washington since his election, and another has been three months absent from sickness. Mr. Henderson, of Texas, is far gone in consumption .-Mr. Davis, of Mississippi, is said to be in danger of losing his evesight. Mr. Bates, of Delaware, has not been heard of this winter, nor is it known upon what side of the Kansas question he is. Mr. Reid, of North Carolina, left here for home about the first of January, and was unable to get fur ther than Richmond. Mr. Sumner has never recovered from the injuries he recived in the brutal assault upon him by Brooks.

THE KANSAS BILL .- General Duff Green publishes a letter in the Washington States insisting that the South ought to resist the Lecompton bill, out of regard for its own honor as well as trial. Once more we warmly recommend this its interests. Being in a minority, he says, the South cannot afford to put herself in the wrong.

FIFP. T. Barnum is in luck once more. He is again at the head of the New York museum, which has been languishing for want of his paternal care, and with the assistance of $27,000 lately received on insurance, is preparing to rebuild Iranistan on a magnificent scale.

19. Capt. Daniel, of Owsley county. 20. Capt. Forsyth, of Louisville.

21. Capt. REESE, of Covington.

Two persons reported companies without a roll officers and men. One by. Mr. W. M. Fulkerson, of Breathitt county, and the other by Mr. A. L. Sanders, of Carroll county. The Governor would not recognize their report on account of the deficiency alluded to. The names of the twenty-one Captains were written on slips of paper, also the word "com pany" on ten other slips. The papers last named, hat, and the slips containing the names of the Captains were placed in another hat. Two little 41,070 feet; that of Cape Mesurada 210, ft and that He can see no difference between this capable poys were selected, one of whom drew from the hat a ticket on which was written the name of a Captain, the second boy then drew from the other hat a slip, which determined the acceptance or ejection of the company whose Captain had been named by the first paper drawn. The draw ing resulted in the selection of the following companies, viz:

1. Capt. Wales, of Louisville.

2. Capt. HANKS, of Anderson.

3. Capt. BEARD, of Lexington. 4. Capt. TRAPNALL, of Mercer.

5. Capt. PIERCE, of Trimble.

6. Capt. McHenry, of Daviess. 7. Capt. Rogers, of Louisville.

8. Capt. Moore, of Pendleton.

9. Capt. ADAIR, of Union.

10. Capt. REESE, of Kenton. Of course those present who were interested, and drew blanks, were much and deeply disappointed, but we were pleased to hear a universal approval and commendation of the fairness and impartiality with which the Governor conducted the whole affair.

IT Thomas K. Dohoney, of Adair county, has been appointed U.S. Marshal for Kentucky.—

Telegraph.

Mr. Dohoney may be a very clever gentleman for aught we know. We never heard of him until now; but why Col. T. I. Young, the late Marshal, has been "rotated" out of office, we are at a loss to understand. We have reason to know a gentleman, in the fullest sense of the term, and was fully up to the Jeffersonian standard, which the so called Democracy pretend is the measure of qualification for their appointees. He is "honest, faithful and capable." His removal adds another item to the mysterious workings of the

JUDGE MCKEE AT PARIS .- The Citizen in its notice of Judge McKee's speech at Paris, on Monday last, says:

He discussed the various subjects before him with the ease of one entirely familiar with them, handling them in all their various relations, with the grasp of a vigorous and comprehensive in-

The Flag says: We only heard the exordium of the gentleman's speech, which was nearly in these words He was a stranger in these parts, and had come to solicit the suffrages of the people for an important trust. Under the circumstances he thought it proper that he should appear before the people as he did, to let them know who he was, what his qualifications were, and to give as-surance of the fidelity with which he would dis charge his duties if elected. To be sure the du ties of his office were mainly ministerial, and it would make no difference what his political opinions were, yet of late years it had got to be a custom with all candidates to make speeches, which was his apology for canvassing the State.

From which we infer that the fire was rathe too heavy for the bogus Democracy of Bourbon.

We then left the house, having no disposition to hear anything farther.

* * Don't vote blindly for a candidate because he happens to belong to our party, but vote for a man who will fill the office as it should be filled-in whose hands your interests, and those of your friends and neighbors, will be safe .-- Moun. Dem.

THE COMING SUMMER .-- It is said that the Earl of Rosse, one of the first astronomers in Europe. has told a gentleman in England that he anticipates one of the most intensely hot summers this year that has ever been known, and he advises farmers to build sheds for their cattle, by way of protection against the extreme heat.

IT McLean's Strengthening Cordial is receiving the unanimous recommendation of the Press, not only at St. Louis, but all over the country. This remedy is evidently the result of close observation and study. Wherever it has been used it has been recommended with the highest encomiums of praise. Persons can have a pull, a strong pull, and pull altogether, up and pointed out the way in which all its difficulno conception of its efficacy, without giving it a remedy as a superior Tonic and ALTERNATIVE.

Vessels arriving on the coast to trade employ natives to do the work of unloading and loading them. There is a tribe called Kroomen, whose tertorial possessions are within the county of Grand Bassa, Liberia. I say territorial, for as the common laws of the tribe allow, Brigham Young's matrimonial arrangements, they have a wife at the different points where the vessels stop to trade, which makes it convenient for the man to stop at home at night when in port, and save him self from the pitiable condition of having them all in one place to welcome him home after several weeks absence. These Kroomen are known by a mark from the top of the forehead, a half inch wide, that runs straight to the end of the nose. It is made in the infancy of the man, by scarrifying the flesh and inserting a black liquid which makes a deep jet black mark that neither time, nor age, nor sickness can wear out. There are other marks made by the liquid, and scarrifying on other parts of the person, as on the temples, or arms, or back, but every male of the tribe has the mark that Col. There are beside these towns, 27 Ports of individual to whom we are indebted for the last trade, where the Liberian, American, English, revelation of the true intent and meaning of the Democracy of the Administration, who has spoken the latest word of its current creed, is Senator Hammond, of South Carolina, whose sentiments touching the great advantages that would nure to the South from a dissolution of the banks of the St. Paul's, St. John's and Senoe rivers Union, we alluded to a day or two since. This gentleman has views in regard to the character and value of the free laborers of this country .and intelligent class of free citizens and the degraded slaves of his own plantation. Nay, we misstate his position; he sees and acknowledges preventing vessels of such tonage as trade from a difference, but it is in favor of the drudging slave. He rejects with imperious contempt the notion of republican equality; sees no advantage in freedom and educated intelligence. Sees only in those who labor with the tools of art, and the lin county. busy implements of industry, in a section of the country where labor has the same franchise as wealth, the equivalent of Southern slaves; creaures to be whipped and scourged to their toil like beasts of burthen; creatures of capability of endurance, and disability of temper, that wealth and enterprise can use it as its will for its own enjoyment and profit.

This is his estimate of our intelligent working nen. This is promulgated as a new maxim in Democratic politics. These are the sentiments by which the President is to be strengthened and dictatorial and reckless Administration sustained. Having thrown overboard the troublesome loctrine of popular sovereignty, which would not subserve its ends, it now lays its intriguing and and aggressive hand on the God-given and bloodsealed charter of the equality of freemen, the irreproachable manliness of independent labor .-Let the people ponder on these things. Here are some of this Democratic autocrat's words:

"In all social systems there must be a class to do the mean duties, to perform the drudgery of life—that is, a class requiring but a low order of intellect and but little skill. Its requisites are vigor, docility, fidelity. Such a class you must have, or you would not have that other which leads progress, refinement and civilization.

TO all persons afflicted with Sexual Diseases, such as I SPERMATORRHEA, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, IMPOTENCE, GONORKHEA, GLEET, SYPHILIS, the Vice of ONANISM.or SELF-ABUSE, &c. &c.

The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destraction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate vicinise of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a CHARITA BLE ACT worthy of their finame, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give MEDICAL ADVICE GRATIS, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.) and in cases of extreme poverty, to FURNISH MEDICINES FREE OF CHARGE. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewedzeal, to this very important but much despised cause.

Just Published by the Association, a Report on Spermatorrhea, or Seminal Weakness, the Vice of Onanism, Masturbation or Self-Abuse, and other Diseases of the Sexual Organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, which will be sently mail, (in a sealed letter envelopee). PROSPECTUS GLASGOW FREE PRESS.

GLASGOW, KY., December 23, 1857.

Dear Sir:—Having disposed of our Printing Office in Elizabethtown, Ky., and removed to Glasgow with the view of permanently locating we purpose commencing the publication of a newspaper sometime during the month of February, to be entitled "THE GLASGOW FRLE PRESS." It will be devoted to General Literature, Politics, Agriculture, the Arts and Sciences, News, and especially to the promotion and advancement of the local and general interests of the lown and county, and those adjacent. No pains or exertion on our part will be intermitted to secure due consideration for all local enterprises, that may be calculated to advance the GLASGOW, KY., December 23, 1857. local enterprises, that may be calculated to advance the general weal of the community.

An earnest effort will be made to render it a valuable general weal of the community.

An earnest effort will be made to render it a valuable family newspaper, acceptable to all parties, combining a variety of interesting and instructive subjects in its columns. Having had considerable experience in the business, and being practically familiar with its mechanical duties, we indulge the hope that we shall be enabled to subserve to some extent, the interests to which the "Free Perss" will be dedicated.

American Politics at the present time, may be said very justly, to be in a chrysalis state. We do not de sign, in this Prospectus, to enter the domain of speculation. It is not necessary to the present purpose, or to define our political position. This may be defined very briefly. We are conscientiously opposed to the practices and the precepts of Modern Democracy. We regard the Democratic party, as now constituted, essentially an alien party; and consider its aims and purposes, as avowed by its organs, practiced by its leaders, and developed in the present administration, pregnant with evil to the Union, in violation of the plann injunctions of the early fathers, and disastrous to American Nationality. We recognize in the "Address of the American Party," promulgated at the Louisville Convention, a political creed, eminently national, eminently conservative, and peculiarly adapted to present existences. We believe that in the fundamental principles of that organization may be found the panace for many, if not all the political evils, which have disordered the country and fomented sectional strife, and which it is now in evident contemplation to aggravate by unwise and imprudent legislation.

Whilst we shall aim to be perfectly independent and honest in the expression of our views of public men and measures, we shall studiously observe courteys and a proper respect for the opinions of others, whose convictions may lead them to differ with us. It is the peculiarity and the boast of American institutions, that they secure to each and every one the "free and untrammeled e secure to each and every one the "free and untrammeled expression of his opinions." In no other government is this perfect freedom of opinion in the citizen tolerated, or considered compatible with the dignity of the State. Our whole system of government reposes upon this basis. Public opinion is here at once the source and the support of power. We cherish an appreciation of the great privilege, too exalted, to induce us to refuse to others what we are prompt to claim for ourselves. Hence the columns of the "Free Frees"

> PROSPECTUS OF THE

"CENTRAL KENTUCKIAN." PUBLISHED IN LEBANON, KY.

Lebanon, since the completion of the Railroad, connecting it with Louisville, is a point of interest to a large section of country. There are hundreds of persons abroad who are in want of information upon various topics connected with it, such as the prices current, facilities for doing and having business done here, &c., and the citizens of Lebanon themselves, wish to inform the public at large, that it is one of the most enterprising and flourishing towns in the interior of the State, and that it offers great inducements as a place of residence to men of aimost every honorable trade and profession. To supply these wants, of people abroad and citizens at home, we have determined to publish "The Central Kentuckian"—a paper devoted to the Commercial, Agricultural, Literary, and Moral welfare of the community in which it is circulated.

It is hoped that we shall be able, by attention to the interest of all concerned, to supply a desideratum long felt. Lebanon, since the completion of the Railroad, e
